MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the association is to enhance professional development and leadership skills, provide a forum for statewide networking and advocate for change when needed in an effort to improve the field of probation services.

WHO WE ARE

The Ohio Chief Probation Officers Association is a state association composed of individual chief administrators of probation services and community control agencies operated by the Courts and/or the State of Ohio who are actively involved with probation services programs, in both adult and juvenile sectors. By taking the initiative, OCPOA has grown to be the voice for probation services in Ohio including line staff, supervisors and administrators. The Association strives to represent a strong, unified voice of probation services.

THE OBJECTIVES OF THE ORGANIZATION INCLUDE:

Development

- To provide access and guidance in the use of new developments in the field of probation.
- To enhance the standards and techniques utilized by probation agencies.
- To develop an operational interpretation of the Ohio Revised Code pertaining to probation activities.
- To provide probation agencies technical resources to develop and implement effective offender interventions.

Networking

- To provide members access to the collective administrative resources of the membership.
- To stimulate cooperation between probation departments in the State of Ohio.
- To provide a forum for the exchange of ideas of mutual interest.

Advocacy

- To advocate for laws, regulations and standards that promote the professional goals of the organization.
- To publicize the professional goals and benefits of probation in Ohio.
- To be an information resource on probation for the legislative, judicial, and executive branch agencies.
- To develop Association Position Statements when determined to be in the best interest of the Association.

Section 1.02 Tax Status and Purposes. In accordance with the status of the Corporation as an organization described in Section 501©(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the Corporation is a professional organization of administrators of probation services.
